Personal Headcanons:

\(The Emperor doesn't come back after ROTJ. Anakin Skywalker fulfilled the prophecy by killing the Emperor and the spirits of all the past Jedi prevented him from using essence transfer, finally removing his evil from the galaxy)**

\(The Empire split the Death Star plans into multiple parts to keep them safe, which is why there are so many different stories of how the Rebels obtained them)**

\(The Robot Chicken sketch of Palpatine finding out about the destruction of the Death Star is canon and you can't convince me otherwise)**

\(The fanfilm, Malak: A Star Wars Story is how the duel where Revan cut off Malak's jaw went down)**

\(I consider both methods of creating a red lightsaber crystal canon. Dark Siders can choose to create a synthetic red crystal or bleed a natural crystal. Though the bleeding method was more common in the Old Republic days and synthetic red crystals are more common by the time of the films)**

\(After her fall to the dark side, Deepa Bilaba was awakened from her coma by a young Caleb Dume. Through the help of both her old master Mace Windu and her soon to be apprentice Caleb, Deepa was able to turn away from the dark side. While she was stripped of her position on the Jedi Council, Mace was able to pull some strings and she was allowed to continue being a member of the Jedi Order. Deepa went on to train Caleb until she sacrificed her life to save him during Order 66)**

\(After Ahsoka Tano and Sabine Wren find Ezra Bridger in the unknown regions, Ezra goes on to be part of the first group of students at Luke's Jedi Praxeum. Ahsoka spends the rest of her life as a lone wandering ronin on the outer rim, helping people out wherever she can while not getting involved in any major galactic events. Many worlds still tell stories of the time they were saved by a mysterious hooded figure wielding two white blades)**

\(Even though I don't consider the 80s Marvel Comics canon, a version of the Luke vs Lumiya rivalry still happened in this continuity)**

\(Luke Skywalker kept Yoda's personal Holocron on his desk so he could remember his master whenever he felt he needed his guidance)**

\(Jacen Solo never fell to the dark side. After NJO, he spent a few years of his life wandering the galaxy and learning more about the force and ancient force-wielding civilisations like the Rakata and the Zeffo, becoming a sort of travelling mystical scholar. Eventually he returned to the Jedi as a Qui-Gon type figure and took Ben Skywalker as his padawan)**

\(Jaina Solo reformed the Twin Suns squadron and eventually went on to become the new Battlemaster of the Jedi Order, with Kyle Katarn gladly giving up the title to her after she finally bested him in a duel)**

\(The Legacy comics take place about a thousand years after the OT, instead of just a hundred)**

\(Personal head canon about Luke Skywalker's death: Luke eventually found what Plaugeis and Sidious were looking for, the secret to eternal life. However, when Luke's time came, he accepted death as a natural part of life and peacefully became one with the force, surrounded by friends and family)**
