

ATTENTION:GOD IS LOOKING AT YOU

GIVING POWER BACK TO PEOPLE

TRUTH ABOUT OUR EXISTENCE

What are we:

Have you ever wondered what we are? Do you have any logical explanation about what happens after death and what happens during life? When do we die? Ever wondered where is God. Lets start with a simple experiment to make it fun. Put your two index fingers an inch apart. Focus on the space between the two fingers. Next, adjust your eyes such that the space between your fingers is out of focus. What do you observe? You will feel that the two fingers are joined by some sort of mist.

You know what this mist is? It is actually the energy flowing between your two fingers. So what are we? We are indeed energy beings. Everything around you is energy.

Are we immortals?

According to Einstein's Law of Conservation of energy, amount of energy in universe is infinite. It can never be lost but can be converted to other forms. For example, if you throw a ball from your roof, the potential energy is converted to kinetic energy while falling which is then converted to heat and sound energy. Eventually, all the potential energy is converted to heat and sound energy and the ball is left with its chemical energy. So as explained earlier we are energy beings. So when we die are we converted to other forms? Yes indeed, we are immortals. You can be converted to other forms after you die and reborn into a new body. You can call it reincarnation, life after death or conservation of energy but the essence remains the same.

How do you tell what will you be in the next form/world? Well, the whole process of reincarnation is explained later on.

Let me explain this in more detail. According to Newton's third law of motion, every action has an equal and opposite reaction. So if you do good, you will get rewards in return. Likewise, if you are arrogant and your conduct is bad, you would be punished by the universe/God. So if your good acts outweigh your bad deeds, you are indeed in heaven and if your hurtful deeds outweigh your good deeds, you are burning in hell. So universe/God are indeed fair.

But how do they know that we are committing good deeds or evil deeds? The book 'The secret life of plants' displays an interesting fact. There was a study with six plants. A researcher cuts off one of the plants and he observed abnormal galvanometer readings which led to further studies that proved our energy is absorbed by everything around us be it a handle of a gun, floor, air etc. Shamans used herbs to reveal secrets of the universe until they were banned by the status quo. So whatever act you do, you leave a trail of energy behind and then according to Newton's third Law of Motion, you get what you deserve. Some people call it karma, some law of physics, some act of God. So is it fair to say that you create your own heaven and hell. Do you choose your own destiny?

What happens after death/ the process of reincarnation:

After death, our soul which is immortal goes through the following stages until we are reborn.

1. Death and departure:

One looks at his body and the people mourning over his/her death. One stays around his/her loved ones until after funeral. During this time, one is pulled towards a light and enters a sort of tunnel.

2. Gateway to the spiritual world:

This is when one reaches the end of the tunnel. At the end of tunnel, one could see beautiful visions, music and scenery. These are the beloved memories from our lives to give one familiarity during this overwhelming process. If someone is sad or confused, guides come to assist and comfort them.

3. Homecoming:

Here we are greeted by souls who are close to us. These are luminous beings that sometimes project faces of people who are still alive physically. Here soul remembers more about after life and past lives feeling more at ease. People who have committed murder or suicide will analyze their actions with their guides and decide on an appropriate path.

4. Orientation:

Here a shower of light sheds any regret/doubt/sadness/traumatic memories. This renews soul's vibrancy to original vibration. Then we discuss with our guides everything that happened in our lives and if lessons need to be repeated in the next life.

5. Transition:

Here we see mega hubs of souls all moving through beautiful tunnels of light to their destination. We meet our soul family, souls who are at similar stage of evolution who we shared lives with. We compare our experiences with souls and learn from each other. These souls keep reincarnating playing various roles with each other.

6. Placements:

Here larger group of soul families who incarnate around each other in cycles learn about their previous experiences. One projects onto specific scenes from their previous lives and into other people's mind to gain an understanding of the larger picture. Here we feel what others felt to learn how we hurt people in certain conditions.

7. Life selection:

Here we choose our next life path. We are able to see multiple paths and are able to temporarily project into these lives to feel which one would be most appropriate. We have the ability to fast forward through the timelines to see critical events that would happen. Some souls will accept greater challenges to experience such as disability or premature death.

8. Choosing a new body:

Here we choose our physical body that we would take in our next life. Choice vastly affects our experience. If you were obese in one life, chances are you will be skinny in the next.

9. Preparation and embarkation:

Here we meet with our soul group, the people who would play roles in the next life to do extensive planning and to create synchronicities and cues that will guide us throughout our life. Higher level guides also help to plan out specific symbols that would trigger certain thoughts and actions at specific times. We then once again meet with a counsel to go over our goals and plans for the next life. This meeting also encourages us to have patience, to hold true to our values, to trust ourselves in different situations and to avoid indulging in anger or negativity.

10. Rebirth:

Then you travel back to earth through the same tunnel you left entering mother's womb. Until the age of 5, the soul is able to leave baby's body to travel and meet with other souls if it wishes but snaps back when the body is in any turmoil. During the first few years, the soul will work to integrate its energy with the brain.

When do we leave the physical plane?

Every soul has a purpose on earth. Either to teach us a lesson or to set an example. Every individual has a contribution towards the events happening in the world. When they have fulfilled their purpose, they leave this world and their energy may be converted to other form and they may reincarnate and return to the world.

What is Heaven and what is Hell?

The movie 'Lion King' gives the perfect answer to this question. It explains the circle of life. The plants are the only creatures which can store energy from sun by the process of photosynthesis. Herbivores feed on plants. Carnivores feed on herbivores. So everything exists in a delicate and perfect balance. So if there are no plants in a jungle, the lion will eventually die. So Mufasa said to Simba that good leaders respect every creature in the jungle. Good leaders understand the 'circle of life'.

Likewise in human populations if masters don't take care of slaves, slaves will die and masters won't have people to work for them. So this phenomenon is called 'Newton's third law of motion' by some and karma by others.

For instance, in some countries rich do not pay taxes on their properties or industries. In order to compensate for this, government imposes taxes on necessities so there is inflation. The salary grows at a very slower rate than inflation of an average person. So the poor gets poorer and the rich is not much affected by this as it doesn't pay taxes and saves money this way. However, the disparity between the rich and poor is generally increased and in such way tax money paid by the poor is not spent on the poor. So in this way both the poor and rich suffer simultaneously. The rich people in these countries are actually 'temporarily' ruling in hell. They live in an illusion until karma bites them. The energy/money in this system flows from bottom to the top (negative direction).

In some parts of the world, the situation is opposite. Leaders are aware of the 'Circle of Life'. They impose taxes on the industries and properties of rich and spend it on the betterment of the poor. Poor people receive free education, free health care. As the money is paid by rich, there is little inflation and better facilities for an average person. The society gap decreases and average people are satisfied that someone is taking care of them. Hence the circle of life is maintained and the country prospers. People in such countries are indeed in heaven. The energy/money in this system flows from top to the bottom (positive direction).

Beauty of child birth:

When having sex, the energies of both the partners are merged. So according to Newton's second law, the overall energy between the two partners is reached to critical threshold which is then converted to another physical being which plays a contribution in the universe and is born for a specific purpose.

Truth about hurricanes, earthquakes and all acts of God/disasters:

According to Newton's third Law of motion, every action has an equal and opposite reaction. According to bible 'What goes around comes around'. In Islam, there is a saying 'Whatever you sow,so shall you reap'. What does it mean? If in a specific place, there are more negative forces than positive forces, the net negative energy is sent to the universe and it will project it back. The intensity of the disaster depends on net negative energy. That's why in early times, scholars who had the ability to transform people ,trees, women and children were not harmed by the invading armies. The places of worship carry the collective energy of many people so they were good places to absorb energy. They were also not destroyed. During Vietnam war it was discovered that places where people did more meditation, prayer were less prone to disasters.

Beauty of Lesbians, gays and shemales:

It is really sad how these people are treated in the society. Like I mentioned earlier, Universe/God has created different people so that people appreciate the beauty of nature. Quran says 'We have created you from a male and female and made you into tribes and nation so that you may recognize each other.' Greedy people who have set the rules become a source of negative energy for the people who follow their rules blindly. They need any excuse to divide people to serve their agenda.

Big Bang Theory/We all are One

Have you ever wondered where did we all come from? What is our origin? As explained earlier that everything is energy. The entire energy of the universe/God was initially a giant combined cluster of energy. There was an explosion and atomic,subatomic particles were born. That was the beginning of the formation of all matter. As everything is energy and we all are a part of that abundant energy so is it fair to say that we all are one?So if we harm anyone/anything, are we harming ourselves? Yes indeed you are. Greedy people/criminals/statusquo teach you right from the beginning that there is a lot of competition in this world. They make you compete for energy and power. This is true only if your source of energy is negative energy from criminals. If you make universe/God your source of energy, it would provide you with unlimited positive energy. Einstein said.

‘Two things are unlimited, Universe/God and human stupidity.’

Thus in the struggle of the world if you harm any other being, it will come back to you. You are only harming yourself. Some people call it karma, some ‘what goes around comes around’, some ‘Newton’s third law of motion i.e: Every action has an equal and opposite reaction. We really wish that every being understands this concept fully. Your world would be converted to heaven then.

Theory of Evolution

Ever wondered how the world is in the state of constant development. Old methods in every field are being replaced by new more advanced technologies. Likewise in our universe, only the fittest creations survive. The rest are replaced by stronger species. This is called the ‘survival of the fittest’. In every kingdom humans are considered the ‘supreme being’. They are the fittest of all creation only if they realize their potential. They are at the top of the food chain in every kingdom. But amongst humans, people who have discovered their potential would rule the world. These are the strongest human beings. They get whatever they ask from god/universe. Currently the politicians of the world are misusing their power. They donot understand the circle of life. They are living in an illusion. They would soon be replaced by stronger humans.

Illusion of physical reality:

Another tool negative energy/devil uses is that it makes everything look so real but it cannot provide the exact definition of real.

‘ If you are talking about things we can see, smell and touch, then real is simply the electrical signals interpreted by your brain.’

Hold a voltmeter with both your hands. You will see fluctuating readings. This is the electrical energy transmitted by your brain.

So physical reality is just an illusion and everything you see around you is energy. Some people call it maya. Islam says.

‘What is the life of this world but play and amusement’

In his biography, Steve Jobs spoke of bending reality. He said

‘When you grow up you tend to get told that the world is the way it is and your life is just to live your life. Try not to bash into walls too much. Try to have a nice family life, have fun, save a little money. That’s a very limited life’. Life can be much broader once you discover one simple fact.

Everything around you that you call life was made up by people that were no smarter than you. And you can change it, you can influence it. Once you learn that you’ll never be the same again.’

Illusion of time

Have you ever wondered what time is? Does time seem too real? Think about how you invented time. Universe/God set up a specific period when earth rotates around the sun. You call it one year. During this period, it revolves for 366 times within its own axis. You call it one day. In order to make things simple for you, you created months i.e:30 revolutions of earth within its own axis. You divide one day/one revolution of earth into 24 hours. 1 hour into 60 minutes. 1 minute into 60 seconds. Then you set deadlines for yourself and become a slave of time. Relax and enjoy your life. Do whatever you love doing. Don’t torture yourself. Is time that real? Think of it. Time is moving at different rate for different people and even different rate for the same person at different occasions. Some days in your work, you might have experienced the time to pass with a blink of an eye whereas at other times it feels like it has been a year and your day is still not over. Look at a fan rotating its blades. Now look somewhat to the side of it. It seems to rotate slower now. Now shift your gaze slowly back toward the center of the fan. The fan seems to pick up speed. Another good example is portrayed in the movie 'inception'. It says that your subconscious time moves much faster than the time in your physical world. Also, the truth is that your soul energy exists in a timeless dimension. Negative energy/devil gives the idea that there is nothing you can do about past, present is of little or no value, future is to look forward to and you have to work for it in order to be happy. This is an illusion as you will be happy only if you are happy in the present moment. If you try to look for happiness in the future, you will live in an illusion that you would be happy soon. Have you experienced that this year is passing quickly than the last year? This is because earth's frequency is increasing. Hence earth's energy is increasing and earth moves around its orbit faster than before. This is making your time speed up.

Out of body experiences/astral travel

Another tool used by negative energy /devil to deceive you is that you are insignificant and you are meaningless. Never fall for this trap. Universe/God has given you 'limitless' potential. You are more than your physical body. You are a supreme creation and at the top of food chain. You can deliberately cause your soul to travel distant places. The planet pluto was discovered through astral travel. Below mentioned are few methods through which you can astral travel.

How to astral project (Out of Body experience):

Many of you may not be aware of the fact that we all go out of our physical bodies everyday during sleep. However, some people can leave their body at will and travel to different locations. In order to achieve this, you need to overcome two barriers: fear of dying and the fear of the unknown. Once you have overcome these fears, only then you can project yourself out of your body at will. The procedure to dissociate our ethereal body (soul) from our physical body is as follow.

Lie in your bed in a north – south direction. Wear loose clothes and remove any objects you might be wearing such as jewelry, watches etc. Close the lights and make sure there is nothing going on in your mind. You have no calls to attend and no meetings. Next you need to relax your body using one of the following techniques.

- 1) Auto- self hypnosis: You should get training from a trained hypnotist on how to achieve self hypnosis and this will be so. Hypnotic induction tapes and binaural beats can be used to achieve relaxation in this manner.
- 2) Border land sleep state: This is easiest and most natural method of all. The difficulty in this however is you may not maintain a delicate edge between sleep and complete wakefulness. The technique is as follow: lie down when you're tired, relax and start to drift into sleep. As you begin to drift into sleep, hold your mental attention onto something. If you fall asleep the experiment has ended. Try it again some other time. If you get nervous, get up and exercise and try again another time. You are just not in the mood. If you achieve condition A, the borderland state indefinitely with your mind on an exclusive thought, you are ready to take the next step. In order to reach condition B, don't think of anything but remain poised between wakefulness and sleep. Simply look at the blackness in front of your eyes. You may start to hallucinate due to neural discharge but it will fade away. Condition C is the deepening of consciousness while in state B. You need to let go of the border land sleep edge and drift little by little during each exercise. Your sensory mechanisms such as touch, smell, taste, hearing would be shut down. Condition D is the achievement of C when one is fully rested and refreshed. This is important in order to maintain conscious control. The best approach is to practice this method immediately after you wake up from nap or a night's sleep. Start it before you move physically from bed and when your body is relaxed and mind alert.
- 3) Induction by drugs:

This is the least preferred method as it results in loss of conscious control and distorted perceptions. The drugs that could be used are alkaloids or hallucinogens.

Once you have reached the relaxation stage, imagine a point of concentration at a distance of one foot from your eyes. The way to do that is to feel two lines converging from outer surfaces of your eyes to a single point a foot away. This point would be of high pressure as if two charged electric wires were joined or the poles of the magnet forced together. Then move this point three feet away from your eyes. Next, move this point 90° upwards from your eyes. Reach for the vibrations at that spot. Once you spot these vibrations, mentally pull them back in your head. You will feel surging, hissing, rhythmically pulsating wave of fiery sparks roaring into your head. From there move the vibrations throughout your body in the form of rings. At this point, your body may feel paralyzed and you may panic. Remember to keep your cool and analyze the events taking place or you will move and destroy the purpose of the experiment. The vibrations will go from your head to toe in about five seconds and back in further five seconds. Your body would be seriously shaken at this time which will make you feel uncomfortable. You will feel the desire to smooth out the vibrations. This is achieved by increasing their frequency mentally. The faster the vibrations, the easier would be the separation process. At this point, there is no turning back. In this state of vibration, you should practice thought control and make sure that you are in a no thought state. Then you need to reach for extremities. While in the state of vibrations in the relaxed state, stretch your arm gently in rest position i.e: in a straight line. Reach for a physical object which is out of reach of your physical body. If you feel it, notice the details such as cracks, grooves etc. Then push your arms against it. You will feel some resistance. Push a little harder and you will overcome this resistance and your arm will move through the object. Then reach out for the second object and observe its details. Then carefully pull your hand back to normal where it belongs. Decrease the vibrations mentally and open your eyes. Then go to the first and second object in the line of your arm and observe the details in your physical form. If they are similar to the ones you have experienced, then you are ready for the dissociation process. Then go to your vibrational state. Place your arms on either side or on your chest. Gently lift your arms without looking at them and touch your finger together. If you have moved easily enough, you would see both your physical and non physical arms. Then return your non physical arms to your physical arms to practice dissociation process. The simplest technique for dissociation process is “lift out technique”. Maintaining complete control of your thoughts, think of getting lighter and lighter floating upwards. You will not achieve this the first or second time but if you have succeeded in the preceding exercises, then quite surely you would be successful. The second method of dissociation is the “rotation technique”. Under the same conditions, slowly turn over just as if you are turning over in bed. Start turning by twisting the top of your head & shoulders. The ease with which you begin to turn, with no friction or sense of weight will inform you that you have begun to succeed in dissociating. As this happens, turn slowly until you feel that you have moved 180°. Once you have rotated 180°, stop the rotation by merely thinking of doing so. Without hesitation, think of floating upwards, backing away from physical body. Again, if you have reached vibrational stage successfully, this method would bring results. Whatever technique you are using, make sure you do not go to distant areas initially as this would induce fear. You will sense how far you are from your body. With practice, you will overcome this fear and only then you should travel to distant places. Robert Monroe in his book “Journeys out of the Body” describes his experiences and explains how to reach different worlds.

Truth about aliens:

Amongst many alien races, the most noticeable ones are Reptilians(Annunaki), grey aliens, Nordic aliens (Humanoids).

Reptilians are typically 5-12 feet tall extraterrestrials. According to David Icke, shapeshifting reptilians control earth by taking on human form and gaining political powers to manipulate the societies. He claims many world leaders are possessed by reptilians. These reptilians become a source of negative energy (energy suckers) for the world.

Grey aliens are mindless clones of reptilians and they are used by government to promote their agenda. They were involved in projects such as MK Ultra (i.e: CIA mind control programme).

Nordic aliens are a group of humanoid extraterrestrials who resemble Nordic Scandinavians. They are typically six to seven feet tall with blonde hair, blue eyes. They are reported to be in an excellent physical shape. Nordic aliens are said to be benevolent or even “magical beings” who want to communicate with human beings. They are concerned with world peace and may transmit messages telepathically. They are associated with spiritual growth, love and act as protectors. They may appear in front of you in a physical form but they understand the fear of unknown by humans so they sometimes come in the form of human consciousness. They love you unconditionally and are a force of good. They are the most advanced alien race. They will guard you against reptilians and grey aliens.

How to practice dream telepathy:

Scientists have revealed in their recent studies that it possible to contact telepathically with someone who lives even thousand of miles away. To practice dream telepathy i.e: to appear in someone’s dream, you should make an intention before sleeping that you would wake up when the subject is in deep sleep. When you wake up, go to your level with the 3 to 1 method mentioned below.

Play an alpha sound in the background and practice this meditation. Feel the following in your mind.

“We will begin this exercise with a 3 to 1 method. Find a comfortable sitting position. Close your eyes, take a deep breath and while exhaling mentally repeat and visualize the number 3, 3 times. Level 3 is for physical relaxation in which you would relax your body from head to toe. To relax physically at level 3, you are going to direct your attention to different parts of your body. Relax your scalp. Feel the tingling sensation of blood flowing through your head. Relax your eyes. Relax your face. Relax your throat. Relax your shoulders. Relax your chest, externally and internally. Relax your abdominal area, externally and internally. Relax your thighs. Relax your calves. Relax your feet and toes. This is your physical relaxation Level 3. In order to enter mental relaxation Level 2, mentally repeat and visualize the number 2, 3 times. In order to relax mentally at Level 2, practice visualizing tranquil and passive scenes. Any scene that makes you tranquil and passive. In order to enter Level 1, mentally repeat and visualize number 1, 3 times. You are now at Level 1, Level you can use for purpose, any purpose you desire

Then you mentally communicate with the person at your level as if he/she was in front of you. With practice, you would be talking to that person in his/her dreams. You can also implant ideas into someone's mind. To achieve this, you need to have an impact on him/her emotionally, otherwise it would be a fail. Hence, it would only work easily if you try to implant idea that is for the betterment of that person. To achieve this, enter the body of the subject thinking of yourself as his spirit. For instance if you are implanting an idea into John's mind, think of yourself entering into John's body as John's spirit. Then mentally repeat the idea you would like to implant e.g: I will stop taking drugs that are harming me. Don't say John will stop taking drugs that harms him. You need to think yourself as his spirit. Then mentally move out of John's body. These techniques are perfected by practice only.

How to practice psychometry?

Many people consider psychometry to be a paranormal ability but there is nothing paranormal about it. Think of how radio functions. When you tune your radio to a specific frequency, it connects to a specific station. When you change the frequency, it connects to another station.

Just like this, every human is in a state of vibration having specific frequency and their energy is absorbed by the possessions in contact with their body like hair, watches etc. If you are able to tune to that frequency, you will be able to obtain information from those vibrations.

In order to that, you need to enter your level with the 3 to 1 method mentioned above. Then you should ask the person to hand over the object into your left hand. Now relax and start thinking of the information you would like to detect e.g: person's home. Just speak out whatever comes into mind without thinking. The more you think, the less accurate your results would be. Usually, the first impression is the strongest and correct one. Keep talking and tell everything that enters your mind. You may think you are making it up but you would be surprised at your results. Then you may come out of your level. The more you practice, the better you would become.

Whenever you have a sincere desire to detect information, because you really need the information to improve conditions on planet, your mind will automatically adjust to the specific level where you will be accurate and correct.

Theory of parallel universes:

Parallel universes may seem a topic of science fiction but a group of Australian and American physicist have suggested that there are multiple versions of universe. The new theory relating to this issue was proposed in 1950's by American physicist Hugh Everett to explain the ability of quantum particles to be in two states. He suggested that both states co-exist in different realities, that's why quantum particles can seemingly occupy two places at once. In accordance with the 'Many Worlds Interpretation' hypothesis, each version of reality branches into a bunch of new realities which are separate. Thus you can have different roles in different universes. In one universe, you may be a writer, in other you might be a world leader. In one universe, United States might be a colony of Ethiopia. Hence there are infinite possibilities.

GOD AND THE DEVIL

How did negative energy/devil entered human civilization:

Universe/God is in a state of constant development. Only the fittest survive. Universe/God created the fittest creatures called humans and placed them in heaven. They were allowed to enjoy all benefits but they were advised not to go near a specific tree. Universe/God however gave them freewill. That tree was a source of negative energy/devil. One of them ate a fruit grown on that tree. Negative energy/devil became a part of human body at that time and the heaven was converted into a chaotic world. All the suffering you see is due to the same negative energy/devil.

According to another theory, reptilians/annunaki came to earth to collect gold in order to save their planet. They did not want to do all the work alone so they needed someone to work for them. So they mated with other species to give birth to human race. Some people claim that human DNA is similar to reptilian DNA. Some people say when reptilians came, they mated with humans and this is how they created evil in human race. We really don't know which one of the theory is correct. Use your adult ego and accept whatever makes most sense to you.

Why did universe/God create negative energy/devil?

Everything is relative in the universe. You won't appreciate good if you did not experience evil.

'You ain't gonna miss the waters until your wells run dry'.

That's why God created negative energy/devil so that you appreciate universe/God. If there was no negative energy/devil, then you were bound to carry positive energy. Then you all would be God's slaves. However, God doesn't want slaves. God wants true friends. That's why there is evil and you are given free will. You will experience both sides and make your decision. As Universe/God loves you unconditionally, it won't force you to join its side. However it would guide you from time to time and expose both sides so the decision would be fair.

We really hope now you understand how much God loves you so that you appreciate God's friendship ☺

How to differentiate between positive energy/God and negative energy/devil.

Universe/God is unconditional love. It guides you and gives you free will. It does not force you to do anything. Negative energy/ devil on the other hand uses control dramas (intimidator, interrogator, poor me, aloof) to control you. It tries its best to control you by its lies so that you do not join our party. However it cannot control free people who understand these control dramas and act accordingly.

Also 'anyone who we haven't unplugged/guided is potentially an agent/devil. Inside the matrix/new world order, they are everyone and they are no one'. But this old system/new world order is too boring now. Its time for a change. So there are only two parties(God's nation and devil's nation). It's a small world. Rumi said

'Whatever you see in this world has roots in the unseen world. The forms may change but the essence remains the same'.

So 'If you are not one of us (God's nation), you are one of them(devil's army)'

How does Universe/God talk to you?

Universe/God talks to you 'always' in 'all ways'. It speaks a universal language. It gives you omens/signs. Sometimes it appears in a form of a message in a song. Sometimes it appears in a form of a person. As everything is energy, it exists in all forms. Have you ever experienced that you have strange coincidences when you are in search of anything. It sends guides/omens to help you. Indeed it knows everything. It will always assist you in your search for your personal legend/purpose of life. It talks to you in your dreams as well as appear as voices in your head. You can differentiate the guidance from God from the guidance from other sources by observing your feelings. The messages of Universe/God are always accompanied by the feeling of unconditional love.

Constant war between negative energy/devil and positive energy/God:

What happens when a person you don't like touches you? Do you feel uncomfortable? Why is that? Lets look at Newton's second Law

'If a force acts on a body, it can speed up, slow down or change direction in the direction of force'.

What is happening there? The other person may be carrying a different form of energy than you. The other person can be negative(energy sucker) and you be positive(energy provider). What happens when your trusted friend touches you? You feel comfortable. Right? That's because you two carry the same type of energy. As the famous saying goes 'Birds of feather flock together'. You either get charged in a positive way and form a deeper bond with the person or you unconsciously enter into a power struggle to maintain your energy. If you make universe/God your source, you will get abundant positive energy which is unlimited. No negative energy/devil can affect you. Infact your energy would be unlimited. You can transform them.

However, if you are receiving positive energy from any other source than God/universe, be careful of negative influences. They might be stronger than you and transform you. Rumi said

'You transform all that is touched by you'.

Why join us?

As we are a force of unconditional love, we will not leave you alone in the times of crisis. We will come in every form to assist you. Negative energy/devil on the other hand will leave you alone in times of crisis. When we appear in front of negative energy/devil, it gets scared. This is the time of crisis for them. Well now its not just crisis but a big disaster for them.

How to transform people?

For this you need to understand the person and project unconditional love regardless of his/her reaction towards you. Become a source of positive energy. You will be known as a good sorcerer and form a deep lasting bond with that person. Be careful. Never hate or kill anyone even if project negative energy/devilish vibes. It has been noted that some people who are greedy are transformed when they are in a company of a person who projects love and positive energy.

How to receive guidance from higher intelligence/Nordic aliens:

As mentioned before that good aliens love to contact you. Here is a method through which you can connect to them via your consciousness.

Play an alpha sound in the background and practice this meditation. Feel the following in your mind.

“We will begin this exercise with a 3 to 1 method. Find a comfortable sitting position. Close your eyes, take a deep breath and while exhaling mentally repeat and visualize the number 3, 3 times. Level 3 is for physical relaxation in which you would relax your body from head to toe. To relax physically at level 3, you are going to direct your attention to different parts of your body. Relax your scalp. Feel the tingling sensation of blood flowing through your head. Relax your eyes. Relax your face. Relax your throat. Relax your shoulders. Relax your chest, externally and internally. Relax your abdominal area, externally and internally. Relax your thighs. Relax your calves. Relax your feet and toes. This is your physical relaxation Level 3. In order to enter mental relaxation Level 2, mentally repeat and visualize the number 2, 3 times. In order to relax mentally at Level 2, practice visualizing tranquil and passive scenes. Any scene that makes you tranquil and passive. In order to enter Level 1, mentally repeat and visualize number 1, 3 times. You are now at Level 1, Level you can use for purpose, any purpose you desire. Go to this level everyday and practice the following exercise (Silva Centering exercise) once a week.

MIND CONTROL AND WESTERN PROPAGANDA

What are control dramas:

According to a study, there are four control dramas namely intimidator ,poor me, aloof, interrogator. Beware of all these control dramas as these are used by people to control you.

Intimidator:

An intimidator will generally use force or his power so that he/she/it becomes a source of negative energy(energy flowing out of your body/energy suckers). Never fall for this trap. You should let him/her know that he/she is scaring you. You need to use your adult ego to reach an agreement. You should only receive positive energy from universe and try to become a source of positive energy for intimidator. At the same time, you need to genuinely love him/her unconditionally and beware of the karma. If this is not possible, stay aloof and do not let him become a source of negative energy for you.

Poor me:

These people will try to gain your sympathy and control you by becoming a source of negative energy. You should let them know that they are making you feel responsible for their situation. Deliberately project your awareness towards them and love them unconditionally and become a source of positive energy for them. Don't worry, you won't lose your energy as when you become a source of positive energy for someone, he/she will at the same time become a source of positive energy for you and there would be no competition for energy. You will form deeper bond with people this way.

Aloof:

These people are too scared of foreign energy and they do not trust people. You should ask them how are they feeling and ask them to be open with you. Become a source of positive energy for them and gain them in your trust by showing unconditional love. Project your energy on them by focusing your attention to them. You will form a deep bond with them this way.

Interrogator:

These people are those who ask questions and use criticism to become a source of negative energy for you and to control you. Anyone who is a source of negative energy for you can control you. Do not make them your source of negative energy. You should let them know that you feel being criticized by them and you can't function this way. Both of you should seek energy from universe and project your awareness for the betterment of the society.

Now you have learnt about control dramas in simple and efficient way. Recognize them and don't let anyone control you (i.e:don't let anyone suck the energy out of you by making them a source of negative energy for you)

Struggle for power:

As we depend on different sources(other than universe/God) for energy, there is greed, competition and hatred amongst human beings. We often struggle to get most attention from our source. For instance, if a mother has three children. She might be giving equal attention to two and not giving enough attention to third. The third one will feel left out,energy deprived. He/she would be jealous of the other two. This will lead to hatred. However, he/she is not to be blamed for this. Likewise in a relationship,normally one partner seeks love/attention/energy from the other partner. Eventually, there will be a time when there will be energy equilibrium and there won't be the same feelings anymore. Both the partners would be competing for energy then. However, if we seek our energy from universe/God, it would never be drained. Thus, it is best to receive abundant energy directly from the universe.

Einstein said 'Two things are infinite,universe and human stupidity and I am not sure of the universe.'

So Einstein was not sure of the energy of God/universe. We can never discover Him/it 100%. If someone believes that he/she knows everything, that's the biggest sign of an ignorant person. Knowledgeable people are always humble, open, loving and without any ego.

Are we free?

Have you heard of the term 'food chain' in animal kingdom? Lion dominates the herbivores which feed on plants. Plants do most of the work being the prime energy source. The lion simply feeds on them indirectly. Likewise the average people do all the work in human kingdom and the people in power make use of it for their own benefit. For instance, poor pay all the taxes and they work for rich as well. The rich use their time and money for their own benefit. Most of the time, these people in power are ignorant of the less powerful people's needs and they do not take care of them. They disturb the 'circle of life' and they themselves suffer eventually.

Let me explain this in a better way. Everyone has their own source of energy. People at the top of the food chain become a source of energy (either positive or negative) for everyone in that kingdom. Then they pass this energy to the people working under them. As they are the source of energy, information, orders for these people, the people under them are helpless and are meant to obey all their orders and are forced to obey all their beliefs. The people at second level of the food chain become the source for the third level people. They are forced to obey all their orders and belief systems as the people at second level as the people are their source of energy, money, information or agenda. This continues and the energy keeps getting divided carrying the same agenda that is passed to them from the top. As the Chinese proverb goes 'Fish rots from the top'. The people at the bottom of the food chain may 'consider' themselves free but they carry the orders of their source without questioning. Now there are only two possibilities. If the person receiving the guidance from the universe understands the circle of life, he circulates this positive energy in the entire food chain and make the world a better place by making deep connection with everyone in that kingdom.

If the person at the top is greedy and is thinking about his personal gains, he does not care about the people under him. He transmits this negative energy (sucks the energy out of the entire kingdom instead of receiving energy from the universe) throughout the food chain and disturbs the 'circle of life'. The source of this negative energy is actually people's 'God'. He/she lives in an illusion until the third law of newton/karma acts. Sadly, this is what's happening in the world right now. Leaders suck the energy out of their countries and superpower simply sucks the energy out of the leaders.

Is it fair to say that most of us are slaves of the 'system designed by people in power'?

Matrix/New World Order:

Many of you have heard of the term 'New World Order'. Do you have any idea what it is? People who are greedy (criminals/status quo) have set up this system to monitor each and every one of you. Universe/God gives everyone what they desire but have set up some rules. These greedy people (criminals/status quo) tend to forget Newton's third law of motion/karma. The people ruling over you become a source of negative energy for everyone. Anyone who is a source of negative energy can control you. They become a source of negative energy, information or money for the people working under them. Thus the people working for them are forced to carry their agenda to the next level. The people at second level become a source of this negative energy for people at third level. This carries on until the same negative energy effects each one of us. They have set up schools, news channels, courts, prisons, psychiatric wards and other tools to serve their agenda and blind you from the truth. Thus you all are victim of this negative energy/devil. If someone tries to break free from this matrix, you all label them and pull them back into this system/new world order/matrix. Thus currently most of you are serving as an agent to promote their agenda to spread negative energy/devilish rule across the globe.

Truth about US economy and mental slavery:

The current superpower is the source of negative energy for all. We all are victims of its ill doings. Due to greed, it is carrying out its own agenda to maintain power, hence become a source of negative energy for the world. The 'circle of life' is terribly disrupted. Most of the world receives this negative energy and US becomes their source of this negative energy. It sets the rules for its own benefits. The world has a slave mentality thinking everything by the US government is superior. The world thinks everything the western media/news show is true. Anyone speaking English and dressed in Western clothes is considered superior. Any western product is considered superior. They can sell us acid(coke) to drink and we consider it as a status symbol. They take cheap clothes from our countries and put a tag of any brand and sell us back for 10 times the price. We consider it as a status symbol. Anyone with fair skin is automatically considered superior than a dark person. Stupid people forget that all the developments in physics is due to laws of motion. They forget the third law of motion. 'Every action has an equal and opposite reaction'. Anything you do, you can't beat nature/universe/God.

Mordern Age Deception:

Another tool negative energy/devil uses to enslave you is that it creates an illusion that you need to possess a specific product,money,property,look like a specific person,get a specific job to be happy and successful. This is just an illusion. You will never be happy this way. Once you be successful in achieving your goal, you will set up a next goal for you to achieve happiness. This will continue until you die and you will never be happy. You will only be happy if you discover your personal legend/purpose of life. Find happiness in simple things/nature and helping others. Negative energy/devil makes you think that natural resources/God's gifts are useless. For instance if a tree grown outside was created by a man, you would appreciate its beauty and complex mechanisms like photosynthesis and respiration but you appreciate branded shoes, clothes and other trivial stuff. You are a slave to these material things. Negative energy/devil has set up a system where slaves work tirelessly to produce goods for slaves who crave for more and more. They live in an illusion until they die. In this process, they do not care if they are destroying life/nature. If you choose their path, you will be a slave forever.

Another trick negative energy/devil uses is that God talks to specific people at specific times. This is a big lie. Don't fall for this trap. God does not discriminate amongst its creation. All of you are equal in His eyes. It talks to you 'always' in 'all ways'. The people who understand this thing are labeled by you. You torture them or kill them. When you see the patience by which they embrace death, you make them your prophets and start worshipping them. These people are ordinary people just like you.

Mind expanding drugs/psychedelics/God's medicines and revolutions

Universe has provided you cure of every disease in nature. Universe is your best doctor who genuinely cares for you. The medicine for your soul is natural drugs/meditation, psychedelics. Shamans and other traditions used drugs as part of their religious practices. They used to live in harmony with the universe. Why are shamans, Native Americans, red Indians portrayed as evil by the mass media. Media shows cowboys as heroes who kill innocent red Indians. If God's medicine is so perfect, why are they illegal? Well in 1950's and 60's, there were revolutions all over the world by people who took God's medicines. It exposes the corruption in the society. Bob marley who was a freedom fighter and a force of good said

'Herb reveals you to yourself'.

Also

‘Herb is a plant. I mean herbs are good for everything. Why these people who want to do so much good for everyone, who call themselves governments and this and that? Why they say you must not use the herb? You see? What they say, they say ‘No you must not use it, you must not use it because it makes you rebel. Against what? Against men who wanna crave because they crave for the things actually they have, some material things and they wanna captivate your mind until you say

Well you have to work and put in pension and then keep it all. So herb make you look upon yourself.’

So God’s medicines help you discover your personal legend/purpose of life. Remember you will never enjoy your life if you do not discover your purpose of life and you won’t succeed in anything else. Einstein said

‘Everyone is a genius but if you judge a fish by its ability to climb a tree it will spend its entire life believing it is stupid.’

Another trick status quo/devils uses is the use of the word hallucinations. These hallucinations are as real as your own reality. When you use God’s medicines, you enter the spirit world and are able to see and communicate with other intelligent beings. These beings can guide you in your search for your treasure/purpose of life.

Psychiatry/devil’s workshop

Another tool used by status quo/devils to maintain their crook system is the psychiatry industry. When the use of God’s medicines caused revolutions around the world, status quo were afraid of losing their power. They made its medicines illegal. They developed psychiatric industry to maintain their control. Over forty years ago, leading psychiatrists met in Puerto Rico to develop their vision for future. Their plan was to develop by the year 2000 a range of psychiatric drugs regulating every aspect of human behavior. Psychiatrist Wayne O Evans said in 1967

‘We see a developing potential for nearly a total control of human emotional status, mental functioning and will to act.’

So like Charles Le Gai Eaton said,

‘ Psychiatry is the study of the soul by the people who have no understanding of the soul.’

Anyone having spiritual experiences is convinced by psychiatrists/devils that they are ill and they would help. These ruthless creatures then torture people in psychiatric ward and give them psychiatric drugs/devil pills. These drugs cause suicidal thoughts, depression, anxiety, loss of self-esteem, weight gain or weight loss and many other harmful effects. So basically these drugs are a tool used by devil to eliminate a potential threat to its control of world. Psychiatric industry generates hell lot of money.

Other than this, normal human emotions are considered as a problem by psychiatrists. Once you enter inside a psychiatrist’s office, they will always prescribe you drugs.

Truth about psychiatric problems/mental disorders:

The real reason for mental disorder and psychiatric problems is spiritual crisis and spiritual emergencies and it actually signals the birth of a healer. It is actually a good news from the spiritual world that one has been chosen as a medium to communicate the message from the spiritual world to the community. Spiritual crisis happen when two incompatible energies(individual’s aura and energy from spiritual world) are merged in the same field. At this point the person receives flow of images and information which cannot be controlled. When this kind of rush occurs at a time that is not personally chosen and particularly when it comes with images that are contradictory and scary, the person goes into a frenzy. What is required in this situation is to separate both the energies using the shamanic practice of ‘sweep’. With the clearing of energy field, the person no longer receives images and information. Then it is possible to align the energy of the spirit to give birth to a healer. The energy from the other world is a high voltage energy and if it is blocked as in psychiatric treatments used today, it just burns up the person. It is like a short circuit. In our world, people are put into isolated places and into strait jackets where they can yell and scream. However it is also true the energy from the other world may be a negative energy. Shamanic method is to remove them from aura rather than aligning them later on. If you treat the person as they are treated in psychiatric wards/mental hospitals, there would be a tendency from the other world to keep trying as many people as possible to get someone's attention. They have to try harder. These spirits are drawn to people whose senses are not anaesthetized.

How does status quo becomes a source of negative energy for the world (mind control techniques):

The truth is that 'it is not a paranoia when they are really after you'. Once you discover the following techniques used by status quo, you will see them (negative energy/devil) everywhere.

1) Education:

The education system designed by globalist foundations and capitalists are one of the main tool to control the public. Our current education system gives the idea that in order to survive, one has to work for capitalists and their businesses. This keeps many people from discovering their purpose of life and acting upon it. They give you the idea that you can never earn money by doing things you actually enjoy working. The truth is that if you are really passionate about something, you would become a master of it and chances are that you might even make more money this way. Even if you earn lesser money, at least you would lead a happier life instead of staying in a prison working for the people who really don't care about you. Also schools never give financial education which is essential to survive in this world. They would never tell you that if you have enough passive income, you can do whatever you like and retire early. They want to keep you as their slaves as long as they can. This is not to say that education is bad but the point is education should be relevant. After all true knowledge is power.

2) Advertising and propaganda

In order to keep their businesses running, they use dirty marketing techniques to control your mind. They give you the idea that in order to be happy, you need to buy a specific product or look like a specific person. This is merely an illusion. Once you reach your goal, you will set yourself another goal in order to achieve happiness and so on. This has created consumer drones all around the world who work day and night to buy unnecessary things they don't actually need.

3) Predictive Programming:

The public media (films, tv) is deliberately seeded with subtle clues to future social, political & technological changes. When the relevant change is then introduced in the society, the public has become used to the idea and does not offer resistance. For example "The Hunger Games: Catching Fire" depicts a totalitarian government ruling over the shattered remnants of United States. So if such a government arises, people wouldn't resist and more likely to accept it based on their exposure in the film. Alan Watts says

"Things or ideas which would otherwise be seen as bizarre/vulgar, undesirable or even impossible are inserted into the films as fantasy. When the viewer watches such films, his/her mind is left open to suggestion and conditional programming."

However not all films are made with bad intention. There are some excellent movies like 'Matrix' which depicts the true reality of life.

4) Politics:

They use politics as tool for their 'divide and conquer' strategy. Political parties are always fighting with each other over their differences even when sometimes all the parties are corrupt. Most of these parties need a chance to gain power so that they can exploit people for their personal gains.

5) Religion:

Religion is perhaps the most useful tool they use as most people are too sensitive about their religions and are willing to kill or die for it. But there are some strange things about religions which should be questioned by people. The religions point at their differences all the time and keep on fighting amongst each other. Then all religions claim that their brand is a religion of peace. Gandhi said ‘ Those who say religion has nothing to do with politics do not know what religion is’. Then most religions say that God loves His people unconditionally. Then they present with a list of special things which if done or not done would lead them to a place full of agony, fire from which there would be no respite. Actually the universe has set up a system in which what one does come back to him in one form or the other. The harder you push the wall, the harder the wall would push you back. Most religions claim that everyone is equal in the eyes of God. Then they say God talks to special people at special times and you need to get guidance from those people. This keeps many people from receiving guidance from God. The truth is that God talks to everyone always in all ways but not everybody listens to His guidance as they are busy getting guidance from other sources. Deepak Chopra said ‘Religion is a belief in someone else’s experience. Spirituality is having your own experience.’ The truth is that there are only two nations. Nation of God/positive energy and Nation of devil/negative energy regardless of the religion. Period. So if your’e not from God’s nation, you’re from devil’s army.

6) Race,color,ethnicity:

They also point differences in color, race, ethnicity to keep the people fighting amongst each other. The truth is that it is the beauty of nature that we all are born different. We should appreciate these differences.

7) Food, water air:

Additives, toxins are added to food to make you dumb and docile. These toxins actually alter your brain chemistry and excites your brain cells until they die. They add fluoride in water which again makes you docile. Try to drink water that has gone through the process of reverse osmosis. That is better. Even if you watch your diet, they are more than willing to spray you from above. Ever wondered what the aircrafts with chem trail are spraying on you. They are spraying harmful substances such as aluminium on you.

8) Psychiatry and psychiatric drugs:

One major arm of modern mind control agenda is psychiatry. Criminals calling themselves psychiatrists can label any person with a disorder and force them to take mind numbing medicines. Anyone having spiritual experience is labeled as psycho and they torture them by giving them drugs or other methods such as electric shock therapy. They realize that they are a threat to their corrupt system, hence they convince people that there is something wrong with their brain. Documentaries such as ‘Psychiatry: An industry of death’ and ‘Making a killing: The untold story of psychotropic drugging’ gives you the real picture of psychiatry and side effects of these dangerous drugs. Natural drugs that they have banned such as marijuana, psilocybin mushrooms have effective cure for depression but these drugs if used by everyone in correct manner might give them spiritual experiences which would result in revolutions. This doesn’t help the people in power.

9) Military testing:

The military mind is perhaps the most malleable as those who pursue life in military generally resonate to the structure of hierarchy, control and need for unchallenged obedience to a mission. For the increasing number of military personal questioning their indoctrination, DARPA’s plan for transcendental mind control helmets would keep them focused.

10) Electromagnetic spectrum:

An electromagnetic soup envelops us all, charged by modern devices of convenience which directly impacts brain function. For example: one researcher has been working on “god helmet” to induce visions by altering the electromagnetic field of the brain. Our modern devices have passively bathed us by potentially mind altering waves. A wide range of possibilities such as cell phone towers is now available to the would be mind controller for more direct intervention.

11) Televisions, computers & flicker rates:

Whatever is programmed in the tv is all engineered, it is made easier by lulling you into sleep. Flicker rate tests show that your alpha brain waves are altered producing a type of hypnosis, the lights can transmit coded internet data by flickering faster than your eye can see. Through video games, social networks, a basic structure which overloads the brain with information induces ADHD state. A study of video games reveal that extended play can result in lower blood flow to the brain; sapping emotional control. Furthermore games of war and police state scenario serve to desensitize a connection to reality. You may fire people from above and think of it as a game of Call of Duty.

12) Nanobots:

It may seem unbelievable but nanobots are on their way. Direct brain modification already has been packaged as 'neuro engineering'. Direct brain manipulations via optic fibres could make someone happy with just a click of a button. Nanobots take the process to an automated level, rewiring the brain, molecule by molecule. This mini droids can self replicate, forcing one to wonder how this genie would ever get back in the bottle once unleashed.

13) News:

You may consider news as a source of information but the truth is that news is another tool used by them to promote their agenda and to prove wrong as right. The fact is 6 companies own 90% of the mainstream media. Wikileaks a tiny organization of a group of activists released more classified documents than the whole of world's media combined. This shows that the world's media is doing a terrible job.

GETTING IN CONTROL OF OUR LIVES
BY REALIZING OUR LIMITLESS POTENTIAL

Getting power back:

As mentioned earlier that we are all energy beings. Energy is never lost but is converted/reincarnated to other forms. Human is known as the supreme being. No wonder humans are at the top of the food chain if we look at the animal kingdom. We have unlimited potential. The only limits we put is the limits set by us by accepting the beliefs of the people in power without questioning them. What if we make use of the powers given to us by nature to maintain 'peace' and the 'circle of life'. We all receive cosmic energy from the universe at the same rate but we all have different resistance to it. Think of it as a battery with a fixed voltage. If the resistance is low, more current will flow. Then what is resistance in this case? We resist the cosmic energy/guidance from the universe by ignoring it as they are not in line with the beliefs passed to us by the greedy people in power. Some may call it resistance, some may call it devil stopping them from receiving God's messages. Others may not even bother to think about it. They tend to ignore such issues. Most of us believe in the same thing(universe/God) in different ways. The people in power exploit these differences and create violence amongst people. Why did not God/universal energy create one way to seek it/Him. It is the beauty of the nature. Everything is relative in universe. An average guy from US/Australia may feel very rich in Somalia/Sudan whereas in their own country, they are just average. You won't appreciate the good if you don't see evil. Imagine how boring the world would be if there is a monoculture and everything is the same. The Universe/God wants people to appreciate it so some things are different than others. Isn't it strange that all religions preach love and yet they fight with each other?

Now that you understand Newton's third Law and karma, let me guide you to the universe/God. In order to receive maximum guidance from universe, we need to decrease our resistance to cosmic energy.

Firstly, we should all curb our ego. Have an open mind. If you are encountering someone younger, curb your parental ego and pay attention to him/her/it. If you encounter someone who is older than you, curb your childish ego. Don't accept everything he/she tells you. Always listen to all and make use of your adult ego to come up to a final conclusion. Always accept things which are absolutely clear and makes most sense. 'If you can't explain it simple enough, then you didn't understand it good enough'.

Though you learn something from everyone that you encounter but don't blindly follow them. Ego/devil/arrogance stops you to receive guidance from God/truth/universal energy. Next, take some time out. Take deep breaths. Empty your mind. Make sure that there are no thoughts in your mind. Trust your instinct while doing meditation.

Power of meditation for healing:

Take time out in the nature preferably. Close your eyes. Take deep breaths. Empty your mind. Feel a column carrying cosmic energy entering your head and many cords from different parts of the body connecting to the ground. Feel like you are a magnet which is attracting all the cosmic energy from the entire universe. As explained earlier, everything around us is energy. We can draw energy from everything around us. Have you experienced that while running outdoors you feel more energetic than running on a treadmill in your room. That's because you draw energy from nature. Now when you are at higher level of energy, you will influence everyone around you as energy flows from a high energy level to a lower energy level. If you throw a ball from your roof to the ground, the potential energy of the ball on your roof is greater than the potential energy on ground (almost 0). So the ball falls from roof to the ground. Likewise if you are at higher energy level, you will influence everyone around you. It is also important to understand the control drama to make universe your sole source. You can deliberately focus your energy in areas far away to help people. This explains why you feel relaxed when you ask someone to do massage. The energy is transferred from his/her body to yours. Another technique that you could use for healing is the glass of water technique. For this, you need to energize the glass of water by visualizing the energy flowing into the glass through your forehead. Then drink the glass of water. Imagine the water healing your body as it passes through different parts of your body.

How to detect abnormalities and heal others?

In addition to healing yourself, you can also heal others with the following technique. Enter your level with the 3 to 1 method mentioned before. If you have worked a case before, review a case that you were accurate on before working a new one. This will put you in the right mindset.

Then, you need to count from 10 to 1 to adjust to the specific level where you are going to be accurate and correct on the case. Ask another person to give you name, age, address and sex of the subject or alternatively visit to www.healthcases.com (password is level) if you are doing alone. Count from 1 to 3 mentally and the image of the body of that person will be on your mental screen. Sense it, (pause) feel it, (pause) visualize it, (pause) know it's there, (pause) take for granted it is there. Slowly scan the body with your sensing faculties downwards inch by inch until you reach the feet. As you continue to scan the body with your sensing faculties continue to talk to the other person and tell everything that enters your mind to that person or alternatively make mental notes of what you observe if you are doing it alone. Don't think too much. The more you think, the less accurate you would be. The first impression is usually the most accurate one. You may feel that you are making it up. That's the correct feeling. When you feel there is a problem, amplify that selected area, zoom in on it, analyze it. When you locate the area of the body that is doubtful, think of the possible problems that could affect this part of the body. Once you detect a problem, project healing energy to that area mentally. After you have corrected what you have detected, continue scanning the body, moving your sensing faculties downwards inch by inch until you reach the feet. Keep on noting what you observe.

Every time you enter this dimension with the sincere desire to help humanity, you will be helping yourself; your talents will increase and you will become more accurate every time. Finally, you may come out of your level.

How to shape your life and the response of God/universal energy:

Be in a comfortable position. Curb your ego. Clear your mind. Think about what change do you want in your life. Feel how would you be like when you get it. Project your feelings from every level of your being. If it feels good, then you are doing the right thing. If not, stop it. It may not be the right time. Beware of impulsive desires. As suggested by name impulsive desires are short pulses of energy which are accompanied by feelings of fear and anxiety. Ignore them. Differentiate them from your intuition. Intuition is a feeling which you are sure that will happen soon. Curb your ego and don't consider impulsive desires as your intuition. Let God/universe guide you. It has been proven that every thought has a specific frequency and hence specific energy. When that thought occurs again and again, energy increases and that thought reaches high energy state. Then according to Newton's third law, universe will project the same energy back to you. It also explains why in most religions, it is said that when you pray, believe that universe/God will answer your call. This is only possible if that energy is in your subconscious mind and constant energy is sent to the universe. How do you know that universe/God is answering your call?

Universe/God works in a really fascinating way. Once you follow this procedure, you will start having coincidences in your life. Coincidences are the combination of constructive events. Every coincidence has a message for you. Analyze the coincidence with a humble and empty mind. It leads you one step closer to your destiny. It is an interesting journey. It is something like a treasure hunt in alchemist. Also, you might get messages in your dreams. Again analyze your dreams with a humble and empty mind. They carry messages for you from divine/God/universe.

‘If you want something, the entire universe conspires to help you achieve it.’

However, it is also true if you are having bad luck, it is a sign by universe that the time is not right. It will guide you towards the right time. Trust and love universe/God. Find happiness in simple things/nature. Help and love everyone unconditionally.

Other methods to bend reality

As explained earlier, everything around you is energy and this world is an illusion (maya). This means our consciousness can have an influence on this energy and hence we can bend reality. Following are some techniques to become a reality architect of your life.

1). Play an alpha sound in the background and practice this meditation. Feel the following in your mind.

“We will begin this exercise with a 3 to 1 method. Find a comfortable sitting position. Close your eyes, take a deep breath and while exhaling mentally repeat and visualize the number 3, 3 times. Level 3 is for physical relaxation in which you would relax your body from head to toe. To relax physically at level 3, you are going to direct your attention to different parts of your body. Relax your scalp. Feel the tingling sensation of blood flowing through your head. Relax your eyes. Relax your face. Relax your throat. Relax your shoulders. Relax your chest, externally and internally. Relax your abdominal area, externally and internally. Relax your thighs. Relax your calves. Relax your feet and toes. This is your physical relaxation Level 3. In order to enter mental relaxation Level 2, mentally repeat and visualize the number 2, 3 times. In order to relax mentally at Level 2, practice visualizing tranquil and passive scenes. Any scene that makes you tranquil and passive. In order to enter Level 1, mentally repeat and visualize number 1, 3 times. You are now at Level 1, Level you can use for purpose, any purpose you desire. Then with your eyes closed, imagine a screen at an angle of 20° above and in front of your eyes. Project the problem image in this screen. Project all five senses and make the image as vivid as possible. After about 1-2 minutes, move the screen 15° left of the initial screen. Project the correction image, what you would be doing to correct that problem. Over exaggerate this correction image. At this point, feel everything that you are doing is going your way. After about 4-5 minutes, move the screen further 15° to left and project the solution image. Make this image as vivid as possible. Next, enter the solution image and become one with you in the image. Then ask yourself these questions mentally. What do I need to manifest? When will it happen? What would it mean to me and people around me? Project desire, belief and expectancy to the solution image. Count from 1 to 5 and open your eyes at the count of 5. First count from 1 to 3. Then at 3, remind yourself mentally that at the count of 5 I will open my eyes feeling wide awake and in perfect health, feeling better than before, feeling the way I feel when I have slept the right amount of revitalizing, refreshing, relaxing, healthy sleep. Proceed to count to 5 and then open your eyes. After this process, you need to take a baby step to tell the universe/God that you are serious. For example if you want to open a company, the baby step would be getting the paper work done. Then the universal auto correction will happen. Things would happen to move you to the correct path that would eventually lead you to your goal. Then you have to take action after auto correction. Auto correction will be felt as a guidance from universe/God.

2) Another technique you can use is the meditation in the following link(Silva Mirror of Mind Technique). Like in the above technique, you need to take baby step and inspired action in this technique as well.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jZ1aPfcGPEI>

3) Autosuggestion:

You can also use the technique of auto suggestion to help you. Repeat in your mind the thing you need to do/ have in terms of it already be done/ received. For example feel in your mind time and time again that I have my dream job and be thankful to universe/ God for it. Then if you have a combination of burning desire, belief and expectancy, you would be landed to your dream job. Napoleon Hill in his book “Think and Grow Rich” mentions this technique.

Your words have power

Imagine you are standing in your kitchen holding a lemon that you have just taken out from fridge. It feels cold in your hand. Look at outside of it, its yellow skin. It has a waxy yellow texture. Squeeze it a little. Smell it. Cut the lemon into half and smell it. The odor gets stronger. Now bite deeply into the lemon and let the juice swirl around in your mouth. Your mouth is watery. This is because you send electrical signals from your subconscious mind and as reality is simply the 'electrical signals interpreted by your brain' so you make your thoughts real.

What happens during meditation:

It has been scientifically proven that there are four frequency levels of mind namely beta, alpha, theta and delta. Beta is outer conscious level. Alpha is when your mind is in a light sleep. Theta and delta are deeper levels of mind and occur when you are in deep sleep. Beta level is outer reality. Alpha, delta and theta levels signify spiritual reality. When you meditate your mind is in an alpha level. You are connected to higher intelligence during alpha level. Whatever you feel at this level 'The entire universe/God conspires to help you achieve it.'

But beware of one rule. Never wish bad for someone else. It will come back to you as we all are one. The outcome however depends on three factors

- 1) Desire: How much you want your wish to come true.
- 2) Belief: You must have absolute belief that it will come true.
- 3) Expectancy: Expect it to come true soon. Universe/God would give you sooner than you imagine.

Use this gift to spread love, peace and slogan of freedom throughout the world. You are more than what you think. You have the power to change the world but you have to believe in yourself and trust universe/God.

Steve jobs said

‘ The people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world are the ones who do’.

Benefits of meditation

Meditation is the best medication. There are countless physical and spiritual benefits of meditation. Amongst many, a few major ones are mentioned below.

- 1)It increases the percentage of mind that you use and give you ‘limitless potential’.
- 2)It gives you everything. It helps you connect with higher intelligence.
- 3)It lets you discover your higher purpose of life/personal legend through intuition. You will never be satisfied until you discover the higher purpose of your life. As Einstein said

‘Everyone is a genius but if you judge a fish by its ability to climb a tree, it will spend its entire life believing it is stupid’.
- 4)It maintains a perfect balance in mind,body and spirit.
- 5) Reptilians have set up a magnetic field around the earth to prevent souls from escaping. If you don’t practice mediation in order to increase your energy to escape that magnetic field, your soul would be stuck on earth where you would be tortured by these entities. When you increase your energy, you increase the overall energy of the earth. You will help trapped souls escape as well.

How to ask universe/God/higher intelligence for a solution to a problem:

There are many ways through which you can receive guidance from higher intelligence to reach your goals. Here are a few methods that could be used.

I. Mental Video Technique:

At beta (wakeful state), mentally create with visualization, a mental video of your problem. Include the possible effects it has on animate matter kingdom (things which have a life). After completing this step, use visualization to review this video at beta with your eyes closed, Then when you go to bed, go to your alpha level using 3 to 1 method and review the mental video you have created at beta. After reviewing the mental video, create with your imagination, the mental video of the solution. It should include a step by step description of how you desire the project to proceed and to be resolved. After completing both these videos, go to sleep with the intention of delivering both mental videos to higher intelligence. Take for granted that the videos have been delivered. During the next three days, look for indication that points to the solution. Every time you think of the project, think of the solution you created in Mental Video. Guidance from higher intelligence can come in many forms such as ideas, creative insight, reading something or seeing something that gives you an idea. You can confirm that this guidance is from higher intelligence by using two methods.

* By using it in the physical world to correct problems and improve conditions.

* Through repetition: As you continue to use the Mental Video Technique, you will eventually gain confidence in your ability to recognize and understand the guidance.

II. Glass of Water Technique:

Take a glass of water. Slightly tilt and close your eyes and drink half a glass while thinking ‘This is all I need to do to find a solution to the problem I have in mind’. Then enter your alpha level with the 3 to 1 method. After this drink the remaining half glass thinking ‘This is all I need to do to find a solution to the problem I have in mind’. The key here is to expect the information to come to you because only with expectations come great things.

III. Receiving guidance in your dreams:

One of the tools higher intelligence uses to guide you is your dreams. For this you need to ask them before you sleep a question and have a belief that it will answer you and you will remember the answer when you wake up. They will give you hints and symbols in your dreams. They will answer each and every one of your query. The bigger your goal(benefits more people), the more guidance you would receive. However silly questions will evoke silly answers but they would always guide you. When the criminals plotted against John F Keneddy, higher intelligence showed him in his dream their plot. If you go in search of your personal legend/purpose of life, higher intelligence will always guide you no matter what.

How to discover the purpose of your life:

The true purpose of your life can be discovered by the process of awakening. Awakening is the shift in consciousness through which the thought and awareness separate. Awareness is the connection with the universal intelligence. Awakening is basically a series of events after which the thought serves as a servant to the awareness. Awakening process starts by grace and there is nothing you can do to start it. It happens at its own time when the time is perfect to reveal the purpose. It happens to different people at different ages. Once awakening occurs, it cannot be reversed. It can however be delayed by ego. You will let go of your form identity to find your purpose after awakening occurs. You won't try to impress others through good looks, physical strength, knowledge, status for these things bring about temporary happiness. Stillness of mind would also help you discover your purpose. 'Stillness is the language God speaks, everything else is a bad translation'. Meditation is a tool you can use to achieve the stillness of mind. Once you discover your purpose of life you will no longer be interested in trivial things most people are interested in. People might start calling you weird. You will either form stronger relations with your friends, family, spouse or they will choose to leave you. You might start losing interest in your job. However, it is true that you have an inner purpose as well as an outer purpose. Outer purpose changes over time unlike inner purpose but both inner and outer purpose are interlinked and one cannot exist without another. For example your inner purpose may be to go to the corner of the room and outer purpose may be to grab a book. In addition to this, you can always ask yourself the following questions that might make you aware of your higher purpose.

- What excites me and gives me energy?
- What kind of ideas come to me in shower?
- What kind of conversations do I like to have?
- What do I do in my free time?
- What topics do I like reading about?
- What recurring dreams do I have?
- During which experiences in my life, I felt most alive?
- What would I do if money was no object?
- What would I do if I really don't care about what other people think?
- What topics can I blend together to create my master piece?
- If I were to write a short (1-2) sentences in "About Me", what would I write?

WHAT HAPPENED IN THE PAST, WHAT IS HAPPENING AT PRESENT AND WHAT IS TO COME

Truth about the past and present:

In World War 1, when the entire world was fighting, the US remained aloof. Entire Europe spent most of the resources producing arms against Germans. They sent all their gold to US in exchange of food. US remained silent. It had collected a large portion of world's gold and silver this way. When the war ended, Europe's treasuries were empty. They asked US to return their gold. The US made a deal with them. At that time US dollar was backed by gold and silver. Google us dollar in 1920. You will see a line underneath. 'In gold coin payable to the bearer on demand'. That's means if you went to bank, you could have got a gold/ silver coin in return of a dollar. However, in the current US dollar, you won't find such a line. What is happening there? After world war 1, US declared that as USD was backed by gold/silver, they will pay Europe in USD instead of gold/silver. In 1971, greed overtook President Nixon. He decided to so called 'temporarily' take the dollar off the gold/silver standard. They will never want this temporary period to end. He printed paper money with the same amount of gold/silver reserves in the federal reserves(treasury). When dollar was backed by gold coin, 1 gold coin = 1 US Dollar. Now the figure has been changed to 1 gold coin= Many Many dollars so the value of man made money cannot compete with God's money/natural reserves. The value of man's money is continuously decreasing. US and the rest of the world is just printing paper. Ever imagined how can a nation with about one third of world's debt is giving debt to other countries? The website www.usdebtclock.org shows that US has accumulated a national debt of 18 trillion (total world debt is 61 trillion) and the figure is continuously increasing. However, US has the advantage of being the world reserve currency. Every country in the world has reserves of USD and trading is carried in USD. This increases the demand of the dollar and hence artificially maintains its value. Hence they are printing infinite amount of money having this advantage. They can print as much money as they desire and give it to anyone they desire to carry out their agenda. If anyone disobeys them, they impose sanctions on that country. They generally give money to their puppets ruling the world, criminal organizations such as ISIS and their criminal friends at Wall street. They can also manipulate the stock and commodity prices. They have set an illusion that money is your God. As many countries currently depend on US as a source of negative energy, money, they follow the rules set by them. They have created an illusion of work hard, save money, build a house, live happily. As the value of money is decreasing, there is increased inflation throughout the world. By the time you save money till retirement, there is hyper inflation. All your hard work, all your savings are worth much much less. This explains why during the hyperinflation in Zimbabwe in 2007, millionaires could just buy an egg with their savings. If you loved nature/God's money, you wouldn't be affected by this illusion. They have set rules that when you feel helpless, you need to pay the false teachers of faith/religion. They don't care about you even in this helpless state. They exploit you then as well. They choose a lose/lose situation for themselves. They exploit you and universe/God punishes them.

Truth about the recent wars:

The true reason behind the wars was that there were not enough natural resources/God's money in the reserves and the value of dollar was declining despite all their efforts. Status Quo was afraid of losing power so they started hunting for the natural resources. They started invading other countries. Universe/God set up two wars so that you might learn something from them. One was against 'Afghanistan', the other against 'Iraq'. Afghanistan does not depend on the negative source of energy from status quo. It is a free nation. It seeks energy directly from Universe/God. No wonder their culture is not polluted and they are proud of their culture, like in the tribal areas of Pakistan. There is no police there, and at the same time the lowest crime rates in Pakistan. They are however suspicious of foreign invaders, negative energy from the status quo which would enslave them. They receive limitless energy from Universe/God. There is no way you can enslave them. History bears witness to this fact. Alexander said 'These people taught me that I am no God'. They resisted every invader till the beginning of time. Russians at their peak tried to invade them. They were crushed by them. British at their peak tried their luck there. In 1841, a rebellion there led to the killing of all British troops except one who was sent back to tell others what happened. Winston Churchill said 'Any poor pathan here is ready to look into the eyes of Queen Elizabeth and say I am no less than you'. The ego/devil of US tried to change the history. What a horrible mistake they made. They spent millions of dollars fighting meaningless war against rocks. Afghanistan was protected by universe/God. US, you are pretty much stuck there. Curb your ego and exit or else serve in Hell. You can never control free people. Another war was waged against Iraq. They used weapons of mass destruction as an excuse to invade Iraq for oil/God's money. Iraq's source of energy was negative energy from US. They projected this negative energy in the Universe. The third law of Newton/Karma is very obedient. The US was able to invade Iraq and enslave it or 'temporarily' enslave it. In this process they killed millions of innocent beings. So they also projected 'negative energy' to a much larger extent. Like mentioned earlier, 'the Third Law of Newton', 'karma' is very obedient. They have called for a terrible torment for themselves.

Other methods used by US to steal natural resources from other nations:

They use many different methods to do this. The most common one is that they recognize a country with natural resources and then lend huge amount of loans to these countries to build the infrastructure. The money actually doesn't go to the country, it goes to the corporations working for US. These projects benefit only a small class of people living in that country. In order to pay back its debts, the ruler of the nation has to impose heavy taxes on its people which cannot be paid by people. Then the US come back to them later on and say you are behind on your debts. They make deal with the leaders to sell cheap natural resources for their companies or to vote for them in the next war or let them set up military bases in their countries etc etc.

Future of the US and the world:

US always gives the idea that the whole world is dependant on it. The truth is that they are dependant on us. The economy of US is about to collapse. US is about to lose its status as a world's reserve currency. Everyone is gonna sell their reserves of USD. Trading would be carried out against gold standard money or other natural resources. People would no longer invest in their stocks and sell their US stocks that would lead to a collapse in their stock market. Everyone is gonna sell their US bonds. As the value of dollar could not be maintained artificially now, they just can't print money to save their stock market or else it would cause hyperinflation in their own country. According to the worldbank whistleblower, Karen Hudes, US dollar will soon collapse and there would be global, interest free currency backed by gold. In the book 'Death of Money' by Jim Rickards, he predicts the collapse of fiat currency. When this would happen USD would be devalued the most and it would be for the betterment of the entire world. The exchange rate of dollar and foreign currencies would be out of imagination. US would impose 'HEAVY' taxes on necessities in their country in an attempt to pay back its loans. No one would keep US dollar and would only buy God's money/natural resources. It is good for people of US to store food for sometime and it is even better if they start growing their own food. It is better that you start accumulating natural resources like gold and silver before your government makes the private ownership of precious metals illegal. As the dollar would be so devalued, everyone would pay back debt to US, world bank, IMF easily. 'Thanks but no thanks' would be the response of everyone. No one would pay taxes in US and will try to go to 'safer heavens'. The US having one third of world's debt due to excessive printing of money would be stuck. It would be desperate to do trade their natural resources. The world would do the same to the US as US did to them. They would buy cheap natural resources from them. The general people of US are really innocent. They themselves are victims of this negative energy. Universe/God understands them and doesn't judge them. Universe/God will take care of them more than a mother takes care of her baby. Only the culprits would be punished by Newton's third law, karma. Culprits are less than 1% of the world. YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE!! Look what greed/ego/arrogance can lead to. Be wise and love universe/God because it is fair and not judgemental.

However, if you exploit the universe/God.it has its own system to ‘set you right’ which is perfect. Now the world would use their tools against them. Social media developed by them as a spying tool, would be used to expose them. You believe in ‘freedom of speech’ right.

US puppets won’t rule the world any more. Moral, capable, visionary leaders would. The salary of the leader would be the average salary of the working class person in that country so that he/she realizes what an average person is going through in his/her country. All the assets of the leadership would be declared and in the country of their residence. They won’t be allowed to carry out their business as they would only promote their business when in power. An independent accountability bureau would be set up to check the leaders have no other source of income. Then there would be a moral world leader whose salary would be the average salary of the working class people of the entire world. He would monitor every world leader and his/her activities.

Rich people and rich businesses would be taxed and money spent on the working class instead of other way round. Currently big corporation like GE pay no tax. They always claim that they create jobs and hence they need to be exempted from taxes. The truth is jobs are only created when there is demand of their products by middle class consumers. So in reality, middle class consumers are real job creators. Ask them to create jobs when everyone stops buying their products. When the rich are taxed and money spent on poor and middle class, the economy would also prosper. For example, rich people who are thousand times richer than the average person mostly don’t own thousand times more cars, clothes and other things than the average person . In addition to this, rich countries would help poor countries. Remember ‘The more you give the more you shall receive’.

‘They (evil people) plot and plan and universe/God too plans and best of the planners is universe/God.’ Also like you said

‘ The more you think you know, the easier it would be to fool you’ but then ‘You can fool some people sometime but you can’t fool all the people all the time.’

So ‘Now you see me’? Maybe not. We are beyond your understanding. You can’t ‘disconnect’ us as now we are joined together by a force which is beyond your understanding.’ We are not afraid to take a stand’, ‘we will mosh through the marsh and take us right through the doors.’ ‘So now you see the light, stand up for your right.’ There is nothing you can do because the ‘times they are changing’. As it is said ‘It takes a revolution to make a solution’. And then this powerful message that scared the shit out of you ‘You talk all times of peace for all and then prepare for war’. WANK worm was just a trailer of the power of universe/God. It was just a reminder and a sign for wise people. We are everywhere.

Who are we?

We are a strange mystery. We have different names. We are known as the ‘rainbow warriors’ in the language of Native Americans. We are the ‘vendettas’ you see in the movies. You may kill us but our ‘ideas are bulletproof’ and will live forever. Some people call us ‘indigos’. We are empathis in the war against psychopaths. We are the forces of God fighting the forces of devil. We are performing the duties appointed to us by God.

For status quo and criminals, we are terrorists. Indeed, we are terrifying for them. You have no idea how scared they are of us. We come in different forms to hunt them down. Their life is quite miserable because of us. They live in fear. Anyone who is a threat to their power is portrayed as terrorist on the media.’Nelson Mandela’, who was fighting for love and equality was imprisoned for 28 years. He was portrayed as a terrorist by them and they dominate the media. But his source of energy was universe/God. He trusted universe/God and it gave him what he wanted. Similarly, they are petrified of ‘Julian Assange’ who exposes corruption. His source of energy was universe/God and he was not a victim of negative energy projected by US government. Other examples of freedom fighters are Imran Khan for Pakistan, Bob Marley for Caribbean, ‘Erdogan for Turkey’, Lee Kuan Yew for Singapore, Vladimir Putin for Russia, Ron Paul and many others. Their source of energy is Universe/God and Universe/God loves them. So if you are thinking that we are a terrorist, your source of energy is the negative energy/devil from status quo. But fear not. Universe/God has a system for you. You project this negative energy in the universe and according to Newton’s third law of motion, karma, you get what you deserve.

Some infected people call us by the name of ‘devil’, ‘evil sorcerer’. Again for these people, the source of energy is negative energy/devil from status quo which sets up rules and they follow them blindly. Again they are petrified of us. Our unlimited positive energy is a threat to their limited ‘negative energy’. They project their ‘negative energy’ to the universe and then Newton’s third law of motion, karma does its job.

Then some really innocent people call us weird, crazy, people with psychological disorders. They are generally the people at the bottom of the food chain. They carry a minute amount of negative energy. Our unlimited positive energy is too strange for them. We understand these innocent people. They project a minute negative energy into the universe and they got a minor punishment. Our unlimited ‘positive energy’ has tremendous potential. It can transform every being. Iqbal said ‘ Can you imagine his/her power. The mere sight of a believer can change destiny.’

Our partners:

We have some partners who are wise and have recognized universe/God. They are indeed in heaven. They are blessed but not greedy. They have everything but are not arrogant. Their positive energy outweigh their negative energy by a large amount. They have no fear. They feel love everywhere. All the children of universe/God love them. They are our allies in our war against evil.

Signs of our victory

So is there still any doubt that there is no power greater than universe/God? Forces of God have taken over control now. The following signs confirm our victory.

Porter Stansberry, the founder of ‘ Stansberry & Associates Investment Research’ who predicted the collapse of 2008 mentions in his presentation ‘End of America’.

‘ I reference our success and experience with Wall’s Street latest crisis because we believe that there is an even bigger crisis lurking-something that will shake the very foundation of America’ The time has come now.

Anonymous’ which is our group and has always fought for freedom of speech and free press has announced ‘World Wide Shutdown’. Our group protected wikileaks when the negative energy/devil blocked its financing. In return, we took down the websites of Mastercard, Visa, Paypal and launched cyber attacks on the criminals. Our group would always protect you and genuinely love you NO MATTER WHAT. We openly invite you to be a part of our group and help us crush forces of evil. Join our ‘fight club’ against these criminals. In our video Worldwide shutdown on youtube, we mentioned

‘ Dear citizens of the internet.For too long the leader of this planet have ruled over a failing system. It was a system devoid of soul without the heart to the cries of our beautiful host planet and its people-----

In the song 'Multiviral' by Calle 13, Julian Assange, who is our partner in this war against evil talks about destruction of New World Order and forming of a new world based on truth.

' We live in a world that your propaganda made. But where you think you are strong you're weak/ Your lies tell us the truth we will use against you. Your secrecy is where we will strike. Your weapons reveal your fears for all to see. From Cairo to Quito, a new world is forming, the power of people armed with the truth.'

Jim Rickards in his interview 'The Death of Money: Project Prophecy 2.0' mentions that America is about to suffer a 100 trillion dollar collapse. Some countries have already stopped accumulating and trading in US dollars.

Our group has warned illuminati(a secret society of criminals) that their reign of terror is over and the day of judgment is about to come.

The time has come.Choose your destiny. Hell or Heaven?

All my people, universe/God have revealed its identity in a simple and efficient way. Now we have given you free choice. Choose your destiny.'You are either with us or against us'. There is no third path but you have your free will. Beware of Newton's third law and karma. Whatever energy you are carrying is now transferred to the air around you,floor and ground beneath you. You really can't fool universe/God. We would recommend that you don't even try. We have a good news. The evil sorcerer can reach the third layer of the other world to the max whereas the master sorcerer can penetrate to the top layer. Now universe's/God's supreme court is doing its job. If you try to change any of this with a bad intention,again your negative energy would be transferred to the air around you and your surroundings. However, if you are with us, you will receive unlimited positive energy. Your job is to project this 'positive energy' throughout the world and spread this message as much as you can. Take care of everyone. Love everyone unconditionally. Maintain the circle of life and never kill or hate anyone. Make sure the culprits are alive in hell otherwise, they would transform and be born amongst you. Universe/God has its own system which is flawless and perfect. We all are one. We should appreciate the differences. Never hate anyone because of his/her poor status, race, colour, religion, sexual orientation. Even if someone does wrong to you, it is not your job to punish them. Universe/God has a perfect system. You are in heaven now if you choose this path. Your job is to support us with this cause.

'Be not like those who forgot the universe/God and universe/God made them forget themselves.'

This message is not meant to scare you or to make you perfect. Nobody is perfect. Only universe/God is perfect. But do not do evil intentionally. Universe/God is not judgemental. It is aware of your imperfections and this is what makes you beautiful. Universe/God is your bestest friend and is pretty chilled out. Universe/God is not at all boring. Infact, it has invented humour. It never minds if you say something to universe if your intention is clean. It doesn't judge you. It has created you to have fun and be free but do not hurt anyone intentionally. The conveyor of this message himself is not perfect. He has his own imperfections like you all. If you try to make him your source, then 'curb your childish ego'. You would project the negative energy in the air and beware of karma/third law of motion. He is no greater than you all. His purpose is to convey this message to you, free you from slavery, guide you towards the universe/God/Divine. But will God disown its own creation, NEVER!! Universe will love them unconditionally and more than their own mothers. These are just the basics. Entire universe/God is out of our understanding. Never be arrogant and assume that you know everything. Have fun working with us and don't be afraid. You are under God's protection and unlimited positive energy. Just love Universe and put your trust in it. Don't be scared of God as only the parental projects of God makes you scared of Him. Have fun with God's blessings and inventions but do not be greedy. There are many more coming your way. You can name this book whatever you like but do not change its essence intentionally. You can always ask universe/God for help. God has given you instincts. You may name it 'God for dummies', 'The Gods must be crazy', 'New world order is too old and boring'. 'Status quo you will rot in hell', 'The cool God', 'The weird God'. Use your imagination and be creative. Have fun and now you know how God rolls. ;)

They (status quo/criminals) can't hide the truth for long. We are gonna spray this information all over the world. This is 21st century and if you think you can stop the truth from prevailing, think again!! All we need to do is put it on internet and mirror the site all over the world. You take down one page, a lot more would be created automatically. You are gonna only make it worse for yourself and believe it or not, you would be helping us ;). You can't put this genie back in the bottle. 'The harder they come, the harder they fall'.

Note: Translate this message to every language and make it available to as many people as you can. I hope you have made the right choice and now we have a signed a business deal. I assure you that you would enjoy working with us.
