If you remain on the premises or return without written permission, you may be prosecuted under the Trespass Act. Please be aware that under the Trespass Act:

Trespass prohibited

2 (1) Subject to section 3, a person who does any of the following commits an offence:

- (a) enters premises that are enclosed land;
- (b) enters premises after the person has had notice from an occupier of the premises or an authorized person that the entry is prohibited;
- (c) engages in activity on or in premises after the person has had notice from an occupier of the premises or an authorized person that the activity is prohibited.

(2) A person found on or in premises that are enclosed land is presumed to be on or in the premises without the consent of an occupier of the premises or an authorized person.

(3) Subject to section 3, a person who has been directed, either orally or in writing, by an occupier of premises or an authorized person to

- (a) leave the premises, or
- (b) stop engaging in an activity on or in the premises

commits an offence if the person

- (c) does not leave the premises or stop the activity, as applicable, as soon as practicable after receiving the direction, or
- (d) re-enters the premises or resumes the activity on or in the premises, as applicable.

Defences to trespass charge

3 A person may not be convicted of an offence under section 2 in relation to premises if the person's action or inaction, as applicable to the offence, was with

(a) the consent of an occupier of the premises or an authorized person,

(b) other lawful authority, or

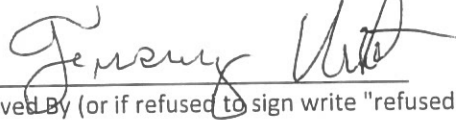

(c) colour of right.

Failure to comply with this notice is an offence under the Trespass Act and may result in personal liability.
