

CANZUK

What is it?

A proposed series of international agreements between Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and the United Kingdom, advocating for:

Free Trade

Freedom of Movement

Foreign Policy Cooperation

Why these four?

The CANZUK four share a unique set of qualities, some of which are held by other nations, but no other country holds all of them:

Common Language

Democratic Government

Strong Economies

Westminster Parliamentary System

Respect for Human Rights

Multicultural Societies
