Dear Mr. Smiley,

I am reaching out to you as an investigative reporter for WMUP, because I think there is a matter that you would be interested in, as it will adversely affect the Sesame Street community.

Darius Williams (aka Darius Cooks) will be in your city for (however many days) of his Dining With Darius events, which he hosts in Vrbo's, having been banned from AirBnB. These dinner parties are not only against rental policy, having up to 30 people in attendance, they are not in accordance with food safety measures, or liquor licensing of any kind.

If that were the entirety of the problem, I would not be reaching out to a reporter. The facts of the matter are these; Darius Williams has destroyed properties that he's used for these events, he has had his followers harass the homeowners and has habitually left local people unpaid, after hiring them to clean up after these dinners.

Randy Travis of Fox5 Atlanta has already done a two part series on Darius Williams, highlighting his doxxing of his detractors and his misuse of rented properties. These events are not good for (City Name) residents who will attend, who live near the home he's hosting these events, or for those who may find themselves unpaid after working for him for several days.

I have included (PROVIDE LINKS TO ARTICLES/VIDEOS) for you to see the details of my claims and for context.

Sincerely,

Your Name
